HOW TO USE THIS INDEX

This index to Volumes 96 and 97 lists the contents of the 1960 issues of THE ROTARIAN. The listings are alphabetical by title, by author, and by pertinent subject classifications. Though you may know only the name of the author or the title of the article or the topic discussed, the Index will enable you to locate it at a glance . . . and to find supplementary topics as well.

A USEFUL TOOL FOR:

Your Club

This index furnishes help with programs, projects and procedures. Club Officers, Committeemen, Chairmen may consult the listings under the Four Avenues of Service, or those under geographical or national headings. For information on official enactments, see BOARD OF DIRECTORS listing.

Yourself

You can find a wealth of Rotary facts under such listings as CONVENTION or DISTRICT GOVERNORS. If you are to make an address, listings under SPEECH, POETRY or HUMOR might well lead you to the precise study or illustration you want. And in the field of your avocational interests, listings under aspects of travel, kinds of hobbies or various sports will be of interest to you.

Your Friends

Young people at all levels of schooling will find the Index indispensable in reference work in various subjects. Teachers will discover how welcome THE ROTARIAN will be to them in assigning supplementary readings in various classes. Your local librarians will find it dependable and authoritative in directing questioners to sources of information.

THE ROTARIAN is the only magazine in its field indexed in The Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature.

Microfilm

Teachers and School Librarians will be interested in knowing the THE ROTARIAN is microfilmed annually. For volumes available and prices, write directly to University Microfilms, 313 North First Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Binders

Having your year's issues of THE ROTARIAN in a binder not only insures against losing any copies, but makes reference to a past edition pleasant and convenient. Durably constructed binders in blue, Kingscraft cover, embossed in gold, are available for $4.00 delivered in the United States; $4.50 in other countries. Please order by name: THE ROTARIAN binder.
